

Jay's training camps for charity in full swing.

Friday, 30 March 2007

Jay's training camp for The "Make-A-Wish Foundation of the Greater Los Angeles have been really popular! Two so far with more more to go on June 20th (SOLD OUT). The interest have been crazy obviously and we could not book them any faster than we did. We are trying really hard to organize one more before the end of the year after the Olympia if Jay has any time in his schedule. Keep checking this site, www.jaycutler.com and www.flexonline.com for more updates and details.
